

RIO DAYNE MINI PROFILE

45 second elevator pitch

My look could be described as "Nefertiti meets soccer Mom".

I can be both and more.

I am a chameleon – I can be "exotic", "sophisticated", "intelligent" – and "mature yet youthful". My art is re-inventing myself.

I can morph from Lara Croft to Marie Antoinette; from fashion diva to sultry temptress; from business woman to soccer mom.

I am a fresh face in a market that can find change unsettling.

Photographers I have worked describe me as unique, versatile and natural in front of the camera. They say I'm fun to work with. That I have a strong sense of style. They've also used words like passionate and youthful in spirit.

I plan to market myself as a new, unique talent for print ads and television commercials as well as a voice talent.

Here is what industry professionals have said:

(Testimonials from photographers)